

Altruist Financial LLC Customer Agreement

July 2020

In consideration of Altruist Financial LLC and their agents and assigns (collectively, “Altruist” or the Broker) opening one or more accounts on the customer’s behalf (“Customer Account(s)” or the “Account(s)”) for the purchase, sale or carrying of securities or contracts relating thereto and/or the borrowing of funds, the Customer represents and agrees with respect to all Accounts, whether margin or cash, to the terms set forth below (the “Customer Agreement”). When used in this Customer Agreement, the word “Customer” means the owner(s) of the Account. For the avoidance of doubt, in the case of a joint account, the word “Customer” means each of the owners of the joint Account.

THE CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS THAT THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT GOVERN ALL ASPECTS OF RELATIONSHIP WITH THE BROKER REGARDING THE CUSTOMER’S ACCOUNTS. THE CUSTOMER WILL CAREFULLY READ, UNDERSTAND AND ACCEPT THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT BEFORE CLICKING “SUBMIT APPLICATION” OR OTHER SIMILARLY WORDED BUTTON. IF THE CUSTOMER HAS ANY QUESTIONS ABOUT ANY OF THE PROVISIONS IN THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT, THE CUSTOMER MAY EMAIL SUPPORT@ALTRUIST.COM. THE CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS THAT CLICKING “I AGREE” IS THE LEGAL EQUIVALENT OF MANUALLY SIGNING THIS AGREEMENT AND THE CUSTOMER WILL BE LEGALLY BOUND BY ITS TERMS AND CONDITIONS. BY ENTERING INTO THIS AGREEMENT, THE CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF THE BROKER’S PRIVACY POLICY AND PRIVACY AND SECURITY STATEMENT. THE CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS THAT THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT MAY BE AMENDED FROM TIME TO TIME BY THE BROKER, WITH REVISED TERMS POSTED ON THE BROKER’S WEBSITE. THE CUSTOMER AGREES TO CHECK FOR UPDATES TO THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT. THE CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS THAT BY CONTINUING TO MAINTAIN A SECURITIES BROKERAGE ACCOUNT WITHOUT OBJECTING TO ANY REVISED TERMS OF THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT, THAT THE CUSTOMER IS ACCEPTING THE TERMS OF THE REVISED CUSTOMER AGREEMENT AND WILL BE LEGALLY BOUND BY ITS TERMS AND CONDITIONS. IF THE CUSTOMER REQUESTS OTHER SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE BROKER THAT REQUIRE THE CUSTOMER TO AGREE TO SPECIFIC TERMS AND CONDITIONS ELECTRONICALLY (THROUGH CLICKS OR OTHER ACTIONS) OR OTHERWISE, SUCH TERMS AND CONDITIONS WILL BE DEEMED AN AMENDMENT AND WILL BE INCORPORATED INTO AND MADE PART OF THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT. THE CUSTOMER ALSO UNDERSTANDS THAT BY CLICKING “SUBMIT APPLICATION” THE CUSTOMER HAS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT CONTAINS A PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION CLAUSE IN SECTION 27 HEREIN.

1. Capacity and Status.

If an individual, the Customer is of legal age under the laws of the state where the Customer resides and authorized to enter into this Customer Agreement. If an entity, the Customer is duly formed, validly existing and in good standing in its state of organization, has full power and authority to enter and perform this Customer Agreement, and the persons signing the account application are fully authorized to act on the Customer’s behalf. No person, except the Customer (or any person named in a separate agreement or joint account), has any interest in the Account opened pursuant to this Customer Agreement. The Customer acknowledges that unless the Broker receives written objection from the Customer, the Broker may provide the Customer’s name, address, and securities positions to requesting companies in which the Customer holds securities. Except as otherwise disclosed to the Broker in writing, neither the Customer nor any member of the Customer’s immediate family is an employee of any exchange, any corporation of which any exchange owns a majority of the capital stock, a member of any exchange or self-regulatory organization, a member of any firm or member corporation registered on any exchange, a bank, trust company, insurance company or any corporation, firm or individual engaged in the business of dealing either as a broker-dealer or as principal in securities. The Customer understands and agrees to the Customer's obligation to promptly notify the Broker in writing if the Customer or the Customer's immediate family becomes registered or employed in any of the above-described capacities. Except as otherwise disclosed to the Broker in writing, the Customer is not a Professional (as defined below) and further agrees to promptly notify the Broker in writing if the Customer is now or if in the future becomes a Professional or an officer, director or 10% stockholder of any publicly traded company.

2. Market Data.

A. Definitions.

- (1) "Market Data" means (a) last sale information and quotation information relating to securities that are admitted to dealings on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), (b) such bond and other equity last sale and quotation information, and such index and other market information, as United States-registered national securities exchanges and national securities associations (each, an "Authorizing SRO") may make available and as the NYSE may from time to time designate as "Market Data"; and (c) all information that derives from any such information.
- (2) "Nonprofessional" means any natural person who receives market data solely for his/her personal, non-business use and who is not a "Professional." A "Professional" includes an individual who, if working in the United States, is: (i) registered or qualified with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the "CFTC"), any state securities agency, any securities exchange or association, or any commodities or futures contract market or association; (ii) engaged as an "investment advisor" as that term is defined in Section 202(a)(11) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (whether or not registered or qualified under that Act), or (iii) employed by a bank or other organization exempt from registration under federal and/or state securities laws to perform functions that would require him or her to be so registered or qualified if he or she were to perform such functions for an organization not so exempt. A person who works outside of the United States will be considered a "Professional" if he or she performs the same functions as someone who would be considered a "Professional" in the United States.

B. Provisions Applicable to All Users.

- (1) Proprietary Nature of Data. The Customer understands and acknowledges that each Authorizing SRO and Other Data Disseminator (as defined below) has a proprietary interest in the Market Data that originates on or derives from it or its market(s). The Customer agrees not to reproduce, distribute, sell or commercially exploit the Market Data in any manner, as such Market Data is provided by the Broker's clearing broker, Apex Clearing Corporation ("Apex" or "Clearing Broker").
- (2) Enforcement. The Customer understands and acknowledges that (a) the Authorizing SROs are third-party beneficiaries under this Customer Agreement and (b) the Authorizing SROs or their authorized representative(s) may enforce this Customer Agreement, by legal proceedings or otherwise, against the Customer or any person that obtains Market Data that is made available pursuant to this Customer Agreement other than as this Customer Agreement contemplates.
- (3) Data Not Guaranteed. The Customer understands that neither the Broker nor any Authorizing SRO, other entity whose information is made available over the Authorizing SROs' facilities (an "Other Data Disseminator"), or information processor that assists any Authorizing SRO or Other Data Disseminator in making Market Data available (collectively, the "Disseminating Parties") guarantees the timeliness, sequence, accuracy, completeness, reliability, or content of Market Data or of other market information or messages disseminated to or by any Disseminating Party. The Customer understands that neither the Broker nor any Disseminating Party guarantees the timeliness, sequence, accuracy, completeness, reliability or content of market information, or messages disseminated to or by any party. The Customer understands that neither the Broker nor any Disseminating Party warrants that the service provided by any such entity will be uninterrupted or error-free. NEITHER THE BROKER, ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES, THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS OR EMPLOYEES, NOR ANY DISSEMINATING PARTY SHALL BE LIABLE IN ANY WAY FOR (A) ANY INACCURACY, ERROR OR DELAY IN, OR OMISSION OF, (I) ANY MARKET DATA, INFORMATION OR MESSAGE, OR (II) THE TRANSMISSION OR DELIVERY OF ANY SUCH DATA, INFORMATION OR MESSAGE; OR (B) ANY LOSS (AS DEFINED IN THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT) OR DAMAGE ARISING FROM OR OCCASIONED BY (I) ANY SUCH INACCURACY, ERROR, DELAY OR OMISSION, (II) NON-PERFORMANCE OR (III) INTERRUPTION IN ANY SUCH MARKET DATA, INFORMATION, OR MESSAGE, WHETHER DUE TO ANY ACT OR OMISSION BY THE BROKER, ANY OF ITS AFFILIATES, THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS OR EMPLOYEES, OR ANY DISSEMINATING PARTY, OR TO ANY "FORCE MAJEURE" (E.G., FLOOD, EXTRAORDINARY WEATHER CONDITIONS, EARTHQUAKE OR OTHER ACT OF GOD, FIRE, WAR, INSURRECTION, RIOT, LABOR DISPUTE, ACCIDENT, ACTION OF GOVERNMENT, OR COMMUNICATIONS OR POWER FAILURE, EQUIPMENT OR SOFTWARE MALFUNCTION) OR ANY OTHER CAUSE BEYOND THE REASONABLE CONTROL OF THE BROKER, ITS AFFILIATES, THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES, OR ANY DISSEMINATING PARTY.

- (4) Permitted Use. The Customer shall not furnish Market Data to any other person or entity. If the Customer receives Market Data other than as a Nonprofessional, the Customer shall use Market Data only for personal individual use.
- (5) Dissemination, Discontinuance, or Modification. The Customer understands and acknowledges that, at any time, the Authorizing SROs may discontinue disseminating any category of Market Data, may change or eliminate any transmission method and may change transmission speeds or other signal characteristics. The Authorizing SROs shall not be liable for any resulting liability, loss or damages that may arise therefrom.
- (6) Duration; Survival. This Section 2 of this Customer Agreement remains in effect for so long as the Customer has the ability to receive Market Data as contemplated by this Section 2. In addition, Sections 2(B)(1)-(3) and the first two sentences of Section 2(B)(7), survive any termination of this Customer Agreement.
- (7) Miscellaneous. The laws of the State of California shall govern this Section 2 and it shall be interpreted in accordance with those laws. This Subsection is subject to the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the rules promulgated under that act, and the joint-industry plans entered into pursuant to that act.

C. Provisions Applicable to Nonprofessionals.

- (1) Permitted Receipt. The Customer understands that Market Data may not be received from the Broker as a Nonprofessional, and the Broker may not provide Market Data to the Customer as a Nonprofessional, unless the Broker first properly determines that the Customer qualifies as a Nonprofessional as defined above and in fact the Customer qualifies as a Nonprofessional. The Customer agrees that, as a prerequisite to the Broker qualifying the Customer as a Nonprofessional, that the Customer will provide to the Broker truthful and accurate information regarding the Customer, such as the Customer's: occupation, employer, employment position and functions; use of Market Data; registration status with any securities agency, exchange, association, or regulatory body, or any commodities or future contract market, association, or regulatory body, whether in the United States or elsewhere; and any compensation of any kind the Customer may receive from any individual or entity for the Customer's trading activities, asset management, or investment advice. Except as otherwise declared to the Broker in writing, by executing this Customer Agreement, the Customer certifies to meet the definition of Nonprofessional as set forth in this Customer Agreement.

- (2) Permitted Use. If the Customer is a Nonprofessional, the Customer agrees to receive Market Data solely for personal, non-business use.
- (3) Notification. The Customer shall notify the Broker promptly in writing of any change in the Customer's circumstances that may cause the Customer to cease to qualify as a Nonprofessional.

3. Reserved.

4. Authorization.

The Customer appoints the Broker as the Customer's introducing broker in order to effect the instructions as provided by either the Customer or the Customer's investment adviser (the "Adviser"), dependent upon the grant of discretionary authority between the Customer and Adviser. The Broker is generally responsible for the placing of orders to buy and/or sell securities consistent with this granted authority, which includes, among other things, and along with Apex (as described below), (i) maintaining and recording transactions in cash and securities (including fractional shares) in the Customer Account; (ii) sending orders placed by the Customer or the Adviser for execution, clearance, and settlement; and (iii) providing the Customer with statements, confirmations, other required documentation, and other information about the Customer Account and transactions therein. The Broker is authorized to open or close the Customer's Account(s), place and withdraw orders and take such other steps as it determines reasonable. The Customer understands the Broker provides trading and brokerage services through the Broker's website and the Broker's current and future mobile application(s) and similar application(s) (together, the "Website"). The Customer agrees to, or shall grant authority to the Adviser to, receive and transmit financial information through such electronic means. The Customer's use or grant of access to the Customer Account to any third party to access information or place transactions in the Customer Account is solely at the Customer's risk and Altruist will not verify whether the Customer has granted access authority to any third party.

The Customer, pursuant to an agreement with the Adviser, may grant the Adviser discretionary authority over the Customer Account. In such instances, the Adviser will provide instructions, on behalf of the Customer, to the Broker. Unless otherwise instructed by the Customer, Altruist shall assume such discretionary authority is granted to the Adviser and shall treat all instructions from the Adviser as from the Customer

A Customer Account may consist of two separate accounts in the event that a Customer's Advisory Account requires both discretionary and nondiscretionary authority or in the event that the Customer's Account requires additional functionality, including, but not limited to, account transfer and funding features. The Customer authorizes the Adviser to open a second Customer Account to facilitate this account functionality. The Customer further authorizes the Adviser to transfer any cash or securities between these two Customer Accounts up to the available balance in each account.

5. Customer Representations and Responsibilities.

The Customer Account may be one or both of the following:

- A. Advisory Account. The Adviser is granted discretionary authority over the Customer Account and the Adviser is responsible for any and all orders placed in the Customer Account and the Customer will authorize the Adviser to place, and the Broker to effect, orders to buy and sell securities on the Customer's behalf, which are executed by Apex. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that orders for purchases or sales in the Customer Account may be combined with orders for purchases or sales of securities in other accounts under the advisory program used by the Adviser.

- B. Self-directed Account. The Customer understands that the Customer Account may be self-directed, in which case the Customer is solely responsible for any and all orders placed in the Customer Account and that all self-directed orders entered by the Customer are unsolicited and based on the Customer's own investment decisions or the investment decision of the Customer's duly authorized representative or agent.

With respect to both of the above, the Customer agrees that neither the Broker nor any of its employees, agents, principals, or representatives:

- (1) provide investment advice in connection with this Account;
- (2) recommend any security, transaction or order;
- (3) solicit orders;
- (4) act as a market maker in any security;
- (5) make discretionary trades; and
- (6) produce or provide first-party research providing specific investment strategies such as buy, sell or hold recommendations, first-party ratings and/or price targets. To the extent research materials or similar information are available through the Website or the websites of any entity controlled by, controlling, or under common control with the Broker (such entity, an "Affiliate"), the Customer understands that these materials are intended for informational and educational purposes only and they do not constitute a recommendation to enter into any securities transactions or to engage in any investment strategies.

- C. Information Accuracy. The Customer: (i) certifies that the information contained in this Customer Agreement, the account application, and any other document furnished to the Broker in connection with the Customer's Account(s) is complete, true and correct, and acknowledge that knowingly giving false information for the purpose of inducing the Broker to extend credit is a federal crime; (ii) authorizes the Broker to contact any individual or firm noted herein or on the documents referred to in subsection (i) of this Section and any other normal sources of debit or credit information; (iii) authorize anyone so contacted to furnish such information to the Broker as may be requested; and (iv) agrees that this Customer Agreement, the account application and any other document furnished in connection with the Customer Account is the Broker's property, as the case may be. The Customer shall promptly advise the Broker of any changes to the information in such agreements and documents in writing within ten (10) calendar days. The Customer authorizes the Broker to obtain reports and to provide information to others concerning the Customer's creditworthiness and business conduct. Upon the Customer's request, the Broker agrees to provide the Customer a copy of any report so obtained. The Broker may retain this Customer Agreement, the Customer Account application, and all other such documents and their respective records at the Broker's sole discretion, whether or not credit is extended.

- D. Risks. The Customer understands that all investments involve risk, that losses may exceed the principal invested, and that the past performance of a security, industry, sector, market, or financial product does not guarantee future results or returns.

- E. Account Defaults. The Customer understands that the Customer Account comes with many defaulted service instruction features and preferences. The Customer further understands that the Customer is not required to use these defaulted options or preferences and that once the Customer Account is approved and opened the Customer has the sole discretion to control and adjust such defaulted service preferences that relate to the Customer Account.

- F. Knowledge of Account. The Customer understands that the Customer is solely responsible for knowing the rights and terms for all securities purchased, sold and maintained in the Customer Account including mergers, reorganizations, stock splits, name changes or symbol changes, dividends, option symbols, and option deliverables. The Customer further understands that certain securities may grant the Customer valuable rights that may expire unless the Customer takes specific action. These securities include bonds, convertible securities, warrants, stock rights and securities subject to exchange offers or tenders. The Customer is responsible for knowing all expiration dates, redemption dates, and the circumstances under which rights associated with the Customer's securities may be called, cancelled, or modified. The Broker may, but is not obligated to, notify the Customer of any upcoming expiration or redemption dates, or take any action on the Customer's behalf without specific instructions from the Customer except as required by law and the rules of regulatory authorities. The Customer acknowledges that the Broker may adjust the Customer's Account to correct any error.
- G. Purchases. All orders for the purchase of securities given for the Customer Account will be authorized by the Customer and executed in reliance on the Customer's promise that an actual purchase is intended. It is the Customer's obligation to pay for purchases immediately or on the Broker's demand. The Customer understands the Broker may at any time, in its sole discretion and without prior notice to the Customer, prohibit or restrict the Customer's ability to trade securities. The Customer further agrees not to allow any person to trade for the Customer Account unless such trading is pursuant to discretionary authority granted to Advisor or a trading authorization for that person has been received and approved by the Broker. The Broker reserves the right to require full payment in cleared funds prior to the acceptance of any order. In the event that the Customer fails to provide sufficient funds, the Broker may, at its option and without notice to the Customer, (i) charge a reasonable rate of interest, (ii) liquidate the Property subject of the buy order, or (iii) sell other Property owned by the Customer and held in any of the Customer Accounts. The Broker may also charge any consequential Loss to the Customer's Account. For purposes of this Customer Agreement, "Property" shall mean all monies, contracts, and investments, whether for present or future delivery, and all related distributions, proceeds, products and accessions.
- H. Sales. The Customer promises to deliver all securities sold in the Customer Account and to provide collateral of a type and amount acceptable to the Broker for all short sales in the Customer Account. If a security is not held in the Customer Account and a sell order is processed, the Customer must promptly deliver such security to the Broker for receipt in good deliverable form on or before the settlement date. Any order accepted without negotiable certificates or positions in the Customer Account will be subject, at Broker's sole discretion, to cancellation or buy-in. To ensure this will not occur, the Customer agrees to only place sell orders for securities owned by the Customer and held in the Customer Account at the time any Customer order is placed.

Proceeds of a sale will not be paid to the Customer or released into the Customer Account until the Broker has received the security in good deliverable form, whether from a transfer agent or from the Customer and the settlement of the security is complete. If the security is not received on or before settlement date, or as market conditions warrant, the Broker may in its sole discretion purchase the security on the open market for the Customer Account and may liquidate and close out any and all securities in the Customer Account in order to pay for such purchase. In the event a security is bought in, the Customer will be responsible for all resulting Losses incurred by the Broker.

The Customer may execute short sales only in a margin account and that such execution must comply with applicable short sales rules.

- I. Assistance by the Broker. The Customer understands that when requesting assistance from the Broker or its employees in using the investment tools available on the Website, it will be limited to an explanation of the tool's functionality and, if requested by the Customer, to the entry by the Broker or its employees of variables provided by the Customer, and that such assistance does not constitute investment advice, an opinion with respect to the suitability of any transaction, or solicitation of any orders.
- J. No Tax or Legal Advice. The Customer understands that the Broker does not provide tax or legal advice.
- K. Discontinuation of Services. The Customer understands that the Broker may discontinue the Customer Account and any services related to the Customer Account immediately by providing written notice to the Customer.
- L. Electronic Access.
- (1) The Customer is solely responsible for keeping the Customer Account numbers and login credentials, including username and password, confidential and will not share this information with third parties.
 - (2) The Customer agrees and accepts full responsibility for monitoring and safeguarding the Customer Accounts and access to the Customer Accounts.
 - (3) The Customer agrees to immediately notify the Broker in writing, delivered via e-mail and a recognized international delivery service, if the Customer becomes aware of: (i) any loss, theft, or unauthorized use login credentials or Account numbers; (ii) any failure by the Customer to receive any communication from Broker indicating that an order was received, executed or cancelled, as applicable; (iii) any failure by the Customer to receive an accurate written confirmation of an order, execution, or cancellation; (iv) any receipt by the Customer of confirmation of an order, execution or cancellation, which the Customer or Adviser did not place; (v) any inaccurate information in or relating to the Customer orders, trades, margin status, Account balances, deposits, withdrawals, securities positions or transaction history; or (vi) any other unauthorized use or access of the Customer Account.
 - (4) Each of the events described in subsections (L)(3)(i)-(vi) shall be deemed a "Potential Fraudulent Event." The use and storage of any information including the Customer Account numbers, login credentials, portfolio information, transaction activity, account balances and any other information or orders available on the Website is at the Customers own risk and is the Customer's sole responsibility. The Customer represents that the Customer is solely responsible for and has authorized any orders or instructions appearing in, originating from, or associated with the Customer Account, the Customer Account number, the Customer username and password, or login credentials. The Customer agrees to notify the Broker immediately after the Customer discovers any Potential Fraudulent Event, but in no event more than twenty-four (24) hours following discovery. Upon request by the Broker, the Customer agrees to report any Potential Fraudulent Event promptly to legal authorities and to provide the Broker a copy of any report prepared by such legal authorities. The Customer agrees to cooperate fully with the legal authorities and the Broker in any investigation of any Potential Fraudulent Event and the Customer will complete any required affidavits promptly, accurately and thoroughly. The Customer also agrees to allow the Broker access to the Customer's Mobile Device, the Customer's computer, and the Customer's network in connection with the Broker's investigation of any Potential Fraudulent Event. The Customer understands that if the Customer fails to do any of these things the Customer may encounter delays in regaining access to the funds in the Customer Account. The Customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Broker, its Affiliates, and the Broker and its Affiliates' respective officers, directors, and employees harmless from and against any Losses arising out of or relating to any Potential Fraudulent Event. The Customer acknowledges that the Broker does not know when a person entering orders with the Customer's username and password is indeed the Customer.

- (5) Trusted Contact Person. The Customer understands that, pursuant to FINRA regulations, the Broker is authorized to contact the Trusted Contact Person (as defined by FINRA Rule 4512) designated for the Customer Account and to disclose information about the Customer Account to address possible financial exploitation, to confirm the specifics of the Customer's current contact information, health status, or the identity of any legal guardian, executor, trustee or holder of a power of attorney, or as otherwise permitted by Rule 2165.

6. Clearance of Trades.

The Customer understands that the Broker has entered into a clearing agreement with Apex whereby the Broker will introduce the Customer Account to the Clearing Broker, and the Clearing Broker will clear all transactions, on a fully-disclosed basis. The Customer understands that the Clearing Broker carries the Customer Account(s) and is responsible for the carrying, clearing, custody and bookkeeping of transactions, but is not otherwise responsible for the conduct of the Broker.

Until receipt from the Customer of written notice to the contrary, the Clearing Broker may accept from the Broker, without inquiry or investigation, (i) orders for the purchase or sale of securities and other property on margin, if the Customer has elected to have a margin account, or otherwise, and (ii) any other instructions concerning the Customer Accounts. The Clearing Broker shall look solely to the Broker unless otherwise directed by the Broker, and not to the Customer, with respect to any such orders or instructions; except that the Customer understands that the Clearing Broker will deliver confirmations, statements, and all written or other notices with respect to the Customer Account directly to the Customer with copies to the Broker, and that the Clearing Broker will look directly to the Customer or the Broker for delivery of margin, payment, or securities. The foregoing shall be effective as to the Customer Account(s) until written notice to the contrary is received from the Customer by the Clearing Broker or the Broker. For further information please see the Apex Customer Agreement which outlines the terms of the relationship between the Customer, Altruist, and Apex, the clearing firm.

7. Review of Confirmations and Statements.

The Customer agrees that it is the Customer's responsibility to review order execution confirmations and statements of the Customer Account(s) promptly upon receipt. The Customer agrees to receive all confirmations and account statements, as well as all tax related documents, in electronic format. The Customer understands that account statements will evidence all activity in the Customer Account for the stated period, including securities transactions, cash balances, credits to the Customer Account and all fees paid from the Customer Account. Notwithstanding Section 31(B), confirmations will be considered binding on the Customer unless the Customer notifies the Broker of any objections within five (5) calendar days from the date confirmations are sent. Customer Account statements will be considered binding on the Customer unless the Customer notifies the Broker of any objections within ten (10) calendar days after the Customer Account statements are posted online. Such objection may be oral or in writing, but any oral objection must be immediately confirmed in writing. In all cases, the Broker reserves the right to determine the validity of the Customer objection. If the Customer objects to a transaction for any reason, the Customer understands and agrees that the Customer is obligated to take action to limit any losses that may result from such transaction or the Customer will bear sole responsibility for any losses relating to the transaction, even if the Customer objection to the transaction is ultimately determined to be valid. Nothing in this Section 7 shall limit the Customer responsibilities as described in Section 5 of this Customer Agreement.

8. Important Information Needed to Open a New Account.

To help the government better detect the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. Therefore, the Customer understands that when the Customer opens an account at the Broker, the Broker will ask for the Customer's name, address, date of birth, or organization date, and other identifying information. The Broker may also ask for copies of the Customer's driver's license, passport, certificate of formation, or other identifying documents. In the event that the Customer is an entity, the broker will request information regarding the entity's control persons along with information regarding the entity. The Customer understands that the Broker may take steps to verify the accuracy of the information the Customer provided to the Broker in the Customer Account application or otherwise, and that the Broker may restrict the Customer's access to the Customer Account pending such verification. The Customer will provide prompt notification to the Broker of any changes in the information including the Customer's name, address, e-mail address and telephone number. The Customer further understands that if the Customer attempts to access the Customer Account from a jurisdiction subject to certain U.S. sanctions or the Customer is ordinarily resident in such a jurisdiction, or if the Broker reasonably believes that the Customer am attempting such access or have become a resident in such a jurisdiction, the Broker may restrict the Customer Account, and any pending orders may be cancelled. If this happens, the Customer understands that the Customer should contact support@altruist.com, and that the Customer may be asked to provide supplemental information as part of this process. The Customer further understands that the Customer must close the Customer Account before establishing residency in any jurisdiction subject to U.S. sanctions.

9. Telephone Conversations and Electronic Communications.

The Customer understands and agrees that the Broker may record and monitor any telephone or electronic communications with the Customer. Unless otherwise agreed in writing in advance, the Broker does not consent to the recording of telephone conversations by any third party or the Customer. The Customer acknowledges and understands that not all telephone or electronic communications are recorded by the Broker, and the Broker does not guarantee that recordings of any particular telephone or electronic communications will be retained or capable of being retrieved.

10. Oral Authorization.

The Customer agrees that the Broker shall be entitled to act upon any oral instructions given by the Customer so long as the Broker reasonably believes such instruction was actually given by the Customer or the Customer's authorized agent.

11. Applicable Laws and Regulations.

All transactions in the Customer Account will be subject to federal securities laws and regulations, the applicable laws and regulations of any state or jurisdiction in which the Broker is registered, the rules of any applicable self-regulatory organization of which the Broker is a member and the rules, regulations, customs and usages of the exchange or market, and its clearing house, if any, where the transactions are executed. In no event will the Broker be obligated to effect any transaction it believes would violate any federal or state law, rule or regulation or the rules or regulations of any regulatory or self-regulatory organization.

12. Erroneous Distributions.

The Customer agrees to promptly return to the Broker any assets erroneously distributed to the Customer. In the event that the Customer sells a security prior to its ex-dividend/distribution date, and the Customer receives the related cash/stock dividend or distribution in error, the Customer directs the Broker on the Customer's behalf to pay such dividend/distribution to the entitled purchaser of the securities the Customer sold, and the Customer guarantees to promptly reimburse the Broker for, or deliver to the Broker, said dividend or distribution.

13. Market Volatility; Market Orders; Limit Orders; and Queued Orders.

The Customer understands that, whether the Customer places a market or limit order, the Customer will receive the price at which the Customer order is executed in the marketplace, subject to any clarification stated below. Particularly during periods of high volume, illiquidity, fast movement or volatility in the marketplace, the execution price received may differ from the quote provided on entry of an order, and the Customer may receive partial executions of an order at different prices. The Customer understands that the Broker is not liable for any price fluctuations. The Customer also understands that price quotes generally are for only a small number of shares as specified by the marketplace, and larger orders are relatively more likely to receive executions at prices that vary from the quotes or in multiple lots at different prices.

The Customer understands that securities may open for trading at prices substantially higher or lower than the previous closing price or the anticipated price. If the Customer places a market order (whether during normal market hours or when the market is closed), the Customer agrees to pay or receive the prevailing market price at the time the Customer's market order is executed. The Customer understands that the price the Customer pays may be significantly higher or lower than anticipated at the time the Customer placed the order. To avoid buying a security at a higher price and possibly exceeding the Customer's purchasing power, the Customer understands the Customer has the option to enter a limit order. The Customer also understands that limit orders may not be executed at any particular time, or at all, if there is not sufficient trading at, or better than the specified Customer limit price, and are only good until the end of the trading day in which they are entered. The Website contains further information regarding order types and limitations, which the Customer agrees to read and understand before placing such orders.

As a customer of the Broker, the Customer understands that after the market has closed for the day, the Customer has the ability to place in a queue order requests to be executed the following day upon the opening of the market ("Queued Order"). The Customer understands that the Customer Queued Order request is prioritized based on the order in which it is received by the Broker, and that the Queued Order requests are sent out for execution shortly after the market opens on the next day of trading. The Customer further understands that each Queued Order request is sent out per customer and per security in a similar manner as to the Broker's market orders (described above), and that they are not aggregated.

A limit order may be "good till cancelled" which means the order remains valid until (A) it is executed; (B) the Customer cancels the order; (C) approximately 90 days from when the order is placed; or (D) the security to which it relates is closed. The Customer understands that the Broker will cancel a "good till cancelled" order at the end of every trading day (on the exchange on which the instrument to which the contract relates is traded) and place such order again at the start of the following trading day. This process will be repeated every day for as long as the "good till cancelled" order remains valid. Further, the Customer agrees that any "good till cancelled" orders the Customer places should be treated as "do not reduce" orders.

14. Joint or Multiple-Party Accounts.

When the Customer opens a joint account, it shall be held by Broker in joint tenancy with rights of survivorship, unless the Customer notifies the Broker otherwise and provides additional information. For tenants in common, the interest in the tenancy shall be equal, unless Broker received written instruction from each Account holder. If the Account is a joint account, the undersigned persons, jointly and severally agree to be fully and completely responsible and liable for the Account and to pay on demand any balance due. Each undersigned person, or any person authorized to act on behalf of the Account under a separate agreement, has full power and authority to make purchases and sales, withdraw funds and securities from, or to do anything else with reference to the Account. Broker is authorized and directed to act upon instructions received from each individual Account holder. Tax reporting information is processed consistent with Section 20 herein using the social security number of the person first named on a jointly held Account. Broker in its sole discretion may at any time suspend all activity in the Account pending instructions from a court of competent jurisdiction or require that instructions pertaining to the Account or the Property therein be in writing, signed by each Account owner. Broker may recover from the Account or from any Account owner such costs as Broker may incur, including reasonable attorney's fees, as the result of any dispute among Broker and Customer relating to or arising from the Account. Upon any event that causes a change in the ownership of the Account (divorce, death, assignment, etc.), all remaining account holders or survivors shall immediately notify Broker in writing. Broker may take such actions in the Account as Broker deems advisable to protect against any tax, liability, penalty or loss under any present or future laws or otherwise. The estate of the decedent or departing account holder shall be liable together with each of the remaining or surviving account holders, jointly and severally, to Broker for any net debit balance or loss in the Account in any way resulting from any transactions initiated prior to notification to Broker or incurred in the liquidation of the Account or the adjustment of the interests of the respective parties. The Customer understands that legal ownership of Accounts shall be governed by the internal laws of the state of residence. The Customer also understands that applicable laws covering joint or community property vary by state and that the Customer is responsible for verifying that the joint ownership the Customer chooses is valid in the Customer's state. Accordingly, Broker encourages the Customer to consult their own attorney for this purpose.

The Broker may, at the expense of the account holder, commence or defend any action or proceeding for or in the nature of interpleader to have any dispute among joint account holders resolved judicially. If a suit or proceeding for or in the nature of an interpleader is brought by or against it, the Broker may deliver the Account into the registry of the court, at which time the Broker will be deemed to be and will be released and discharged from all further obligations and responsibilities under this Agreement.

15. Restrictions on Trading.

The Customer understands that the Broker may, in its discretion, prohibit or restrict the trading of securities, or the substitution of securities, in any of the Customer Accounts. The Customer understands that the Broker may execute all orders by the Customer on any exchange or market, unless the Customer specifically instructs the Broker to the contrary. In the event of a breach or default by the Customer under this Customer Agreement, the Broker shall have all rights and remedies available to a secured creditor under all applicable laws and in addition to the rights and remedies provided herein. The Customer understands that the Broker may at any time, at its sole discretion and without prior notice to the Customer: (i) prohibit or restrict the Customer's access to use the Website or related services and the Customer's ability to trade, (ii) refuse to accept any of the Customer transactions, (iii) refuse to execute any of the Customer transactions, or (iv) terminate the Customer Account. The closing of the Customer Account will not affect the rights or obligations of either party incurred prior to the date the Customer Account is closed.

Further, the Broker will not tolerate any foul or abusive language, physical violence, threatening behavior, or other inappropriate conduct directed toward the Broker, its Affiliates' officers, employees, contractors or customers. If the Customer engages in any such behavior, as determined by the Broker in its sole discretion, the Customer agrees that the Broker is authorized to: (i) liquidate any securities, instruments or other property in the Customer Account, (ii) send the Customer the proceeds, and (iii) close the Customer account. The Broker will not be responsible for any Losses caused by the liquidation of securities, instruments or other property pursuant to this paragraph, including any tax liabilities.

16. Waiver; Limitation of Liability; Indemnification.

The Customer agrees that the Customer's use of the Website or any other service provided by the Broker or its Affiliates is at the Customer's sole risk. The Broker's service (including the Website, the provision of Market Data, Information, Content, or any other information provided by the Broker, any of its Affiliates, or any third-party content provider or market data provider) is provided on an “as is,” “as available” basis without warranties of any kind, either express or implied, statutory (including without limitation, timeliness, truthfulness, sequence, completeness, accuracy, freedom from interruption), implied warranties arising from trade usage, course of dealing, course of performance, or the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or application, other than those warranties which are implied by and incapable of exclusion, restriction or modification under the laws applicable to this Customer Agreement.

Although considerable effort is expended to make the Website and other operational and communications channels available around the clock, the Broker does not warrant that these channels will be available and error free every minute of the day. The Customer agrees that the Broker will not be responsible for temporary interruptions in service due to maintenance, Website or other technological changes, or failures, nor shall the Broker be liable for extended interruptions due to failures beyond Broker’s control, including but not limited to the failure of interconnecting and operating systems, computer viruses, forces of nature, labor disputes and armed conflicts.

THE CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT THE BROKER, ITS AFFILIATES, ITS RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AND EMPLOYEES, AND THE PROVIDERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO THE CUSTOMER OR TO THIRD PARTIES UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, OR HAVE ANY RESPONSIBILITY WHATSOEVER, FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, TRADING LOSSES, AND DAMAGES) THAT THE CUSTOMER MAY INCUR IN CONNECTION WITH THE CUSTOMER’S USE OF THE SERVICE PROVIDED BY THE BROKER UNDER THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE CUSTOMER’S USE OF THE WEBSITE, THE MARKET DATA, THE INFORMATION, OR THE CONTENT. THE BROKER, THE BROKER AFFILIATES, AND THE BROKER’S RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AND EMPLOYEES SHALL NOT BE LIABLE BY REASON OF DELAYS OR INTERRUPTIONS OF THE SERVICE OR TRANSMISSIONS, OR FAILURES OF PERFORMANCE OF THE BROKER’S SYSTEM, REGARDLESS OF CAUSE, INCLUDING THOSE CAUSED BY GOVERNMENTAL OR REGULATORY ACTION, THE ACTION OF ANY EXCHANGE OR OTHER SELF REGULATORY ORGANIZATION, OR THOSE CAUSED BY SOFTWARE OR HARDWARE MALFUNCTIONS.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Broker or any of its affiliates or respective partners, officers, directors, employees or agents (collectively, “Indemnified Parties”) shall not be liable for any expenses, losses, costs, damages, liabilities, demands, debts, obligations, penalties, charges, claims, causes of action, penalties, fines and taxes of any kind or nature (including legal expenses and attorneys’ fees) (whether known or unknown, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, direct or indirect, due or to become due, accrued or not accrued, asserted or unasserted, related or not related to a third party claim, or otherwise) (collectively, “Losses”) by or with respect to any matters pertaining to the Customer Account, except to the extent that such Losses are actual Losses and are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction or an arbitration panel in a final non-appealable judgment or order to have resulted solely from the Broker’s or any of its affiliates’ gross negligence or intentional misconduct. In addition, the Customer agrees that the Indemnified Parties shall have no liability for, and the Customer agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from all Losses that result from: (i) any noncompliance by the Customer with any of the terms and conditions of this Customer Agreement; (ii) any third-party actions related to the Customer’s receipt and use of any Information, Market Data, Content, market analysis, other third-party content, or other such information obtained on the Website, whether authorized or unauthorized under this Customer Agreement; (iii) any third-party actions related to the Customer’s use of the Website; (iv) the Customer or the Customer's agent misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation, or act or omission; (v) Indemnified Parties following the Customer or the Customer's agent's directions or instructions, or failing to follow the Customer or the Customer's agent's unlawful or unreasonable directions or instructions; (vi) any activities or services of the Indemnified Parties in connection with the Customer Account (including any technology services, reporting, trading, research or capital introduction services); or (vii) the failure by any person not controlled by the Indemnified Parties and their affiliates to perform any obligations to the Customer. Further, if the Customer authorizes or allows third parties to gain access to the Broker's services, including the Customer's Accounts, the Customer will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Broker, its Affiliates, and the Broker and its Affiliates' respective officers and employees against any Losses arising out of claims or suits by such third parties based upon or relating to such access and use. The Broker does not warrant against loss of use or any direct, indirect or consequential damages or Losses to the Customer caused by the Customer's assent, expressed or implied, to a third party accessing the Customer Account or information, including access provided through any other third party systems or sites.

The Customer consents to the use of automated systems or service bureaus by the Broker and the Broker's respective affiliates in conjunction with the Customer Account, including automated order entry and execution, record keeping, reporting and account reconciliation and risk management systems (collectively "Automated Systems"). The Customer understands that the use of Automated Systems entails risks, such as interruption or delays of service, errors or omissions in the information provided, system failure and errors in the design or functioning of such Automated Systems (collectively, a "System Failure") that could cause substantial damage, expense, or liability to the Customer. The Customer understands and agrees that Indemnified Parties will have no liability whatsoever for any of the Customer's Losses arising out of or relating to a System Failure.

The Customer also agrees that Indemnified Parties will have no responsibility or liability to the Customer in connection with the performance or non-performance by any exchange, clearing organization, market data provider, or other third party (including other broker-dealers and clearing firms, and banks) or any of their respective agents or affiliates, of its or their obligations relative to any securities. The Customer agrees that Indemnified Parties will have no liability, to the Customer or to third parties, or responsibility whatsoever for: (i) any Losses resulting from a cause over which Indemnified Parties do not have direct control, including the failure of mechanical equipment, unauthorized access, theft, operator errors, government restrictions, force majeure (as defined in this Customer Agreement), market data availability or quality, exchange rulings or suspension of trading; and (ii) any special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages (including lost profits, trading losses and damages) that the Customer may incur in connection with the Customer's use of the Website, and other services provided by Indemnified Parties under this Customer Agreement. Further, if the Customer authorizes or allows third parties to gain access to the Broker's services, including the Customer Accounts, the Customer will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Broker, its affiliates, and the Broker and its affiliates' respective officers and employees against any Losses arising out of claims or suits by such third parties based upon or relating to such access and use.

17. Exchange Traded Funds and Mutual Funds.

- A. Exchange Traded Funds. The Customer understands that it is necessary to consider the investment objectives and unique risk profile of Exchange Traded Funds ("ETFs") carefully before investing, and that ETFs are subject to risks similar to those of other diversified portfolios. Further, the Customer understands that leveraged and inverse ETFs may not be suitable for all investors and may increase exposure to volatility through the use of leverage, short sales of securities, derivatives, and other complex investment strategies, and that although ETFs are designed to provide investment results that generally correspond to the performance of their respective underlying indices, they may not be able to exactly replicate the performance of the indices because of expenses and other factors. The Customer further understands that ETFs are required to distribute portfolio gains to shareholders at year end, which may be generated by portfolio rebalancing or the need to meet diversification requirements, and that ETF trading will also generate tax consequences. The Customer understands that the Customer can obtain prospectuses from issuers or their third party agents who distribute and make prospectuses available for review.

- B. Mutual Funds. In the event that the Customer purchases or holds a mutual fund, the Customer agrees to read and understand the terms of its prospectus. Certain mutual funds reserve the right to change their purchasing, switching or redemption procedures or suspend or postpone redemptions under certain market conditions. Any mutual fund order entered with the Broker is placed on a best efforts basis as prescribed and recognized by the individual fund, and the Broker is not responsible for unexecuted orders due to the failure of any communication system. The Customer will be fully responsible for the information contained within the mutual fund prospectus and to hold the Broker, its Affiliates, and their respective officers and employees harmless for any deficiencies contained therein. The Customer authorizes the Broker to act as the Customer's agent in the purchase and redemption of fund shares.

18. Effect of Attachment or Sequestration of Accounts.

The Broker shall not be liable for refusing to obey any orders given by or for the Customer with respect to any of the Customer Accounts that has or have been subject to an attachment or sequestration in any legal proceeding against the Customer, and the Broker shall be under no obligation to contest the validity of any such attachment or sequestration.

19. Event of Death.

It is agreed, consistent with Section 14 herein, that in the event of the Customer's death or the death of one of the joint Account holders, the representative of the Customer's estate or the survivor or survivors shall immediately give the Broker written notice thereof, and the Broker may, before or after receiving such notice, take such proceedings, require such papers and inheritance or estate tax waivers, retain such portion of, or restrict transactions in the Account as the Broker may deem advisable to protect the Broker against any tax, liability, penalty or loss under any present or future laws or otherwise. Notwithstanding the above, in the event of the Customer's death or the death of one of the joint Account holders, all open orders shall be canceled, but the Broker shall not be responsible for any action taken on such orders prior to the actual receipt of notice of death. Further, in the Broker's discretion it may close out any or all of the Customer Accounts without awaiting the appointment of a personal representative for the Customer's estate and without demand upon or notice to any such personal representative. The estate of any of the Customer Account holders who have died shall be liable and each survivor shall continue to be liable, jointly and severally, to the Broker for any net debit balance or loss in said account in any way resulting from the completion of transactions initiated prior to the receipt by the Broker of the written notice of the death of the decedent or incurred in the liquidation of the Customer Account or the adjustment of the interests of the respective parties, and for all other obligations pursuant to this Customer Agreement. Such notice shall not affect the Broker's rights under this Customer Agreement to take any action that the Broker could have taken if the Customer had not died.

20. Tax Reporting; Tax Withholding.

The proceeds of sale transactions and dividends paid will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") in accordance with applicable law. Under penalties of perjury, the Customer certifies that the taxpayer identification number provided or will provide to the Broker (including any taxpayer identification number on any Form W-9 that the Customer has provided or will provide to the Broker) is the Customer's correct taxpayer identification number. The Customer certifies that the Customer is not subject to backup withholding and is a United States Person (including a U.S. resident alien) as such term is defined in section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("U.S. Person"). If a correct Taxpayer Identification Number is not provided to the Broker, the Customer understands the Customer may be subject to backup withholding tax at the appropriate rate on all dividends, interest and gross proceeds paid to the Customer. Backup withholding taxes are sent to the IRS and cannot be refunded by the Broker. The Customer further understands that if the Customer waives tax withholding and fails to pay sufficient estimated taxes to the IRS, the Customer may be subject to tax penalties.

21. Equity Orders and Payment For Order Flow.

SEC rules require all registered broker-dealers to disclose their policies regarding any "payment for order flow" arrangement in connection with the routing of customer orders. "Payment for order flow" includes, among other things, any monetary payment, service, property, or other benefit that results in remuneration, compensation, or consideration to a broker-dealer from any broker-dealer in return for directing orders. The Customer understands that the Broker transmits customer orders for execution to various exchanges or market centers based on a number of factors. These include: size of order, trading characteristics of the security, favorable execution prices (including the opportunity for price improvement), access to reliable market data, availability of efficient automated transaction processing and reduced execution costs through price concessions from the market centers. The Customer further understands that certain of the exchanges or market centers may execute orders at prices superior to the publicly quoted market in accordance with their rules or practices and that while a customer may specify that an order be directed to a particular market center for execution, the order-routing policies, taking into consideration all of the factors listed above, are designed to result in favorable transaction processing for customers. The nature and source of any payments or credits received by the Broker in connection with any specific transactions will be furnished upon written request.

22. Free Credit Balances, Sweep Service and Money Market Account.

The Customer authorizes the Broker to invest the free credit balances in the Customer Account in either (a) Apex's "FDIC-Insured Sweep Program," a sweep service, or (b) a money market account at the sole discretion and determination of the Broker. Under Apex's FDIC-Insured Sweep Program, free credit balances in the Customer Account will be deposited with Apex, in accordance with the "Apex FDIC-Insured Sweep Program Disclosures" available on the Website. The Customer has reviewed and agreed to the terms as set forth in the Apex FDIC-Insured Sweep Program Disclosures.

The Broker may, without notice, redeem any invested amount, whether through a sweep service or money market account, to the extent necessary to satisfy any debits arising in any of the Customer Accounts. Amounts not invested may accrue interest on the free credit balances. Any accrued interest will be calculated on a 365-day year and actual days elapsed. The interest rate may vary from time to time without prior notice and may be equal to zero. The Customer understands that the Broker and the Clearing Broker shall not be obligated to pay interest on any free credit balance in the Customer Account. The Customer further understands that the Broker receives rebates from the Clearing Broker derived from customer margin debt balances, money market accounts, and customer free credit balances.

23. Fees and Charges.

The Customer understands that there are charges for executing buy and sell orders and for other services provided under this Customer Agreement, as indicated in the Broker's most recent Commissions and Fees Schedule, available at <https://altruist.com/legal>. The Customer understands that the commissions and fees for trade executions and other services in accounts assigned to a registered representative may be different from the commissions and fees charged to the Broker's self-directed customers. The Customer also agrees to pay all applicable federal, state, local, and foreign taxes. The Customer authorizes the Broker to automatically debit the Customer Account for any such brokerage commissions, charges, fees, and taxes. The Customer agrees to pay any such commissions and fees at the then-prevailing rate. The Customer acknowledges that the prevailing rate of commissions and fees may change and that change may occur without notice. The Customer agrees to be bound by such changes. The Customer specifically agrees to pay a reasonable rate of interest on the principal amount of any debit balance carried with respect to the Customer Account. Interest may be charged against the Customer Account in connection with cash withdrawals, if the proceeds from a security sale are disbursed before the regular settlement date of the sale transaction and late payments. If the Brokerage receives a Customer's payment for securities purchases in a cash account after the settlement date, the Customer shall be charged a late payment fee of $25 plus a daily interest charge on the debit balance until the Broker is fully paid. Charges will be calculated using a prevailing interest rate, currently set to the daily rate of "Broker's Call" plus a percentage, as determined by the Broker, not to exceed 5%. The charges shall accrue until paid and posted to the Customer Account on the day following payment of the debit balance. Interest due on the Customer Account is payable on demand. The Customer also agrees to pay such expenses incurred by the Broker in connection with collection of any unpaid balance due on the Customer Accounts including attorney's fees allowed by law.

24. ACH and Wire Transfers.

- A. ACH Transfers. The Customer authorizes the Broker, at its discretion and without further prior notice, to utilize an electronic check process or Automated Clearing House ("ACH") facility to draft funds in the amount of any of the Customer checks payable to the Broker, its agents or assigns. Money deposited via ACH is normally not available for withdrawal for five (5) to ten (10) business days. Within calendar 63 days of the date of the Customer's ACH deposit, the Customer's funds may only be withdrawn to the bank account from which such funds were deposited. The Customer understands that for the ACH transfers to be established, at least one common name must match exactly between the Customer Accounts at the Broker and bank accounts. To send and receive ACHs, The Customer's bank must be a member of the ACH system. For ACH transactions, the Customer hereby grant the Broker limited power of attorney for purposes of redeeming any shares in the Customer Account and direct the Broker to accept any orders to make payments to an authorized bank account and to fulfill these orders through the redemption of shares in the Customer Account. In addition, if the Customer or any joint account owner decides to rescind an ACH transfer, the Customer hereby directs and grants the Broker power of attorney to redeem any shares necessary to fulfill and make such rescission regardless of whether the Customer incurs any loss.

An ACH bank reversal may occur when (A) there are insufficient funds in the Customer bank account, (B) there is a duplicate transaction, (C) the transaction is denied, or (D) the type of account is incorrect. The Customer acknowledges that in the event of an ACH bank reversal, the Customer will incur a fee. Before making an ACH transfer, the Customer agrees to check the Broker's most recent Commissions and Fees Schedule, available at <https://altruist.com/legal>. The Customer agrees to be solely liable and responsible for any ACH reversal fees that the Customer incurs.

- B. Wire Transfers; Indemnification. If the Customer arranges for a wire transfer to be directed to the Customer Account, the Customer is responsible for ensuring that such wire is initiated properly, addressed properly, and bears appropriate wire instructions in exactly the form required by the Broker for identification of the Customer and the Customer Account. The Customer understands that any erroneous, mismatched, or incomplete identifying information on an incoming wire transfer may result in such wire being rejected, lost, posted to an incorrect Customer Account, or returned to the originating bank without notice to the Customer and the Customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Broker, its Affiliates, and the Broker and its Affiliates' respective officers and employees harmless from any Losses arising out of or relating to any erroneous, mismatched or incomplete identifying information on an incoming wire.

By sending the Broker a wire transfer request, the Customer authorizes the Broker and the Broker's bank service provider to act on behalf of the Customer to initiate the wire transfer or check disbursement. It is the Customer's responsibility to ensure that instructions are accurate before requesting the Broker to initiate a wire transfer. In order to complete a wire transfer request, the name and address on file in the Customer Account must match what the Customer has on file at the recipient bank; and the Customer must provide the correct recipient bank's name, recipient bank's address, recipient bank account number, and BIC/SWIFT code.

In accepting wire transfer requests, the Broker may rely upon the identifying number (such as routing number, account number and BIC/SWIFT code) of the recipient, the recipient's financial institution or any intermediary bank, as instructed. Also, the recipient's bank in the wire transfer requests may make payment on the basis of the identifying number even if it identifies a person or entity different from the named recipient. The Customer understands that, if incorrect instructions or recipient information were provided to the Broker, the Customer may lose the amount of the wire transfer. The Customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Broker, its Affiliates, and the Broker and its Affiliates' respective officers and employees harmless from any Losses arising out of or relating to any erroneous, mismatched or incomplete identifying information on an outgoing wire.

The Customer must have a sufficient available balance in the Customer Account to cover the wire transfer amount and the wire transfer fee at the time the Customer sends the Broker the wire transfer request. The Broker will not be obligated to make any wire transfer unless the Customer has a sufficient available balance in the Customer Accounts to cover the wire transfer amount and the wire transfer fee at the time the Customer sends the Broker the wire transfer request. The Broker has the right to neither send nor process any wire transfer request without notice in the event of insufficient available funds. The Broker also may reject any wire transfer request for any reason or no reason.

All wire transfer requests provided to the Broker are subject to the Broker's review and acceptance. The Broker's confirmation, if any, of the receipt of the Customer wire transfer request is an indication only that the Broker has received the Customer's wire transfer request. The Broker reserves the right to refuse to pay any wire transfer recipient whom the Customer designates in the wire transfer request.

A wire transfer request cannot be amended or canceled after the Broker receives it. The Broker may in its sole discretion attempt to abide by a subsequent request for a change, but the Broker is not obligated to do so. Any acceptance by the Broker of a request by the Customer to amend, recall, or trace a wire transfer is made conditionally upon the express understanding by the Customer that the Broker cannot guarantee fulfillment of such a request and that the Broker is not responsible for any failure to change, recall, or trace such wire transfer. The Customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Broker, its Affiliates, and the Broker and its Affiliates' respective officers and employees harmless from any Losses arising out of or relating to an attempt to amend or cancel a wire transfer.

All wire transfer requests received by the Broker after the cutoff time will be reviewed and processed within a commercially reasonable time, generally within one business day. Wire transfer requests entered after the cutoff time may start to process immediately, in its sole discretion. The Customer understands that any cutoff times referenced in this Customer Agreement reflect the times displayed on the Broker's internal system clocks and may not necessarily be synchronized with the internal clock displayed on the Customer's personal device. For this reason, the Broker suggests that the Customer send any wire transfer requests to the Broker sufficiently in advance of such cutoff times to eliminate the possibility of missing the cutoff.

Notwithstanding any information the Customer provides on the wire transfer request to the contrary, the Broker reserves the right to use any funds transfer system and intermediary bank in the execution of the Customer's wire transfer request, and the Broker may use any means of executing wire transfer requests that the Broker deems reasonable in the circumstances. The Broker authorizes such funds transfer systems and any intermediary or recipient banks to deduct fees from the funds transferred. The Customer understands that the Broker or any intermediary or recipient banks may apply their prevailing currency exchange rate(s) in the conversion and payment of funds. The Customer is aware that currency exchange rates fluctuate over time and accepts the risks of such fluctuation. The Customer also understands that all incoming and outgoing wire transfers must be in U.S. dollars.

The Customer agrees to not hold the Broker or its Affiliates liable for any damages resulting from an intermediary or recipient bank's decision not to accept any wire transfer. The Broker and its Affiliates are not responsible for any fees, delay, misplacement, loss, errors, any act or failure to act by the Broker, its Affiliates, or an intermediary or recipient bank or any other third party. The Customer agrees that wire transfers are subject to the fees set forth in the Broker's Commissions and Fees schedule, available at <https://altruist.com/legal>. The Customer also agrees to be solely responsible for all such fees, including wire transfer reversal fees for both incoming and outgoing wire transfer requests. Additionally, the Customer agrees to be solely responsible for any additional fees that any originating, intermediary, or recipient banks may charge.

25. Consent to Redeem Shares

Whenever it is necessary for the Broker's protection or to satisfy a margin call, deficiency, debit or other obligation owed to the Broker, the Broker may (but is not required to) sell, assign and deliver all or any part of the securities in the Customer's Account, or close any or all transactions in the Customer's Account. The Broker may, but is not obligated to, attempt to contact the Customer before taking any such action. The Broker reserves the right to take any such action without prior notice or demand for additional collateral, and free of any right of redemption, and that any prior demand, call or notice will not be considered a waiver of our right to sell or buy without demand, call or notice. The Customer further understand that the Broker may choose which securities to buy or sell, which transactions to close, and the sequence and timing of liquidation, and may take such actions on whatever exchange or market and in whatever manner (including public auction or private sale) that the Broker chooses in the exercise of its business judgment. The Customer agrees not to hold the Broker liable for the choice of which securities to buy or sell or of which transactions to close, for the timing or manner of the liquidation, or for taking such action. The Broker is entitled to exercise the rights described in this section in its sole discretion, including, but not limited to, whenever any of the following occurs: (i) the equity level in the Customer Account falls below required minimums; (ii) sufficient funds or securities are not deposited to pay for transactions in the Customer Account; (iii) the Customer reverses any ACH debit transfer to Customer Account; (iv) a petition of bankruptcy or for the appointment of a receiver is filed by or against Customer; (v) an attachment is levied against the Customer Account; (vi) Customer dies or become incapacitated or incompetent; or (vii) the Customer Account is closed.

26. Electronic Delivery of Trade and Account Information; Notice.

All communications, notices, legal disclosures, and other materials related to the Customer Account or the Customer Agreement, including account statements, trade confirmations, margin calls, notices, disclosures, regulatory communications and other information, documents, data and records regarding the Customer Account (the "Communications"), or an alert that any such Communication has been posted to the secure section of the Website, and is available for viewing, may be sent to the Customer at the mailing address for the Customer Account or the e-mail address provided to the Broker in the Customer Account application (to either e-mail address in the case of joint accounts where each account holder has given an e-mail address; notice to both e-mail addresses is not required) or at such other address as the Customer may hereafter give the Broker in writing or by e-mail at least ten (10) calendar days prior to delivery, and all communications so sent, whether in writing or otherwise, shall be deemed given to the Customer personally, whether actually received or not.

27. Arbitration.

A. This Customer Agreement contains a pre-dispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement, the parties agree as follows:

- (1) All parties to this Customer Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- (2) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- (3) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- (4) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
- (5) The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- (6) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- (7) The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Customer Agreement.

B. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Customer Agreement, any other agreement between the Customer and the Broker, any Account(s) established hereunder, any transaction therein, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the rules of FINRA Dispute Resolution, Inc. ("FINRA DR"). The Customer agrees to arbitrate any controversy or claim before FINRA DR in the State of California.

C. This agreement to arbitrate constitutes a waiver of the right to seek a judicial forum unless such a waiver would be void under the federal securities laws. If the Customer is a foreign national, non-resident alien, or if the Customer does not reside in the United States, then the Customer agrees to waive the right to file an action against the Broker in any foreign venue.

D. No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (1) the class certification is denied; or (2) the class is decertified; or (3) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Customer Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

28. API.

A. Overview; Definitions. The Broker may, in Broker's sole discretion, provide third parties with an application programming interface and other materials in accordance with any accompanying documentation (collectively, the “API Package”) (such third parties, “API Licensees”), to make available certain features and functionality of the Broker’s websites, or technology platform via the API Licensees’ products (such products, the “Licensee Products”). The API Package and the Licensee Products are collectively referred to as the “API Products.” “Personal Information” means the Customer’s personally identifiable information (including username, logon password, financial information, trade data, and other financial information) and all data exchanged between the Broker and the API Products.

- B. Access to Personal Information. Through the Customer’s use of any API Products, the Customer may be providing API Licensees with access to the Customer’s Account and Personal Information. By using any API Products, the Customer acknowledges that such API Products may employ security, policies, procedures and systems of API Licensees which may or may not be less stringent and secure than the Broker’s policies, procedures and systems. The Customer agrees that the Customer’s use of any API Products shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Customer Agreement, in addition to any other agreements which the Customer executed with respect to any such API Products. The Customer understands and agrees that any end user agreement that the Customer executed with any API Licensee is concluded between the Customer and such API Licensee only, and not with the Broker; and such API Licensee, not the Broker, is solely responsible for such Licensee Product and the content thereof. The Customer understands and agrees that the API Products may deliver Personal Information to the Broker, and that the Broker is authorized to receive and store such Personal Information consistent with the Broker’s then-in-effect policies and procedures. Further, the Customer agrees that the API Products may request Personal Information stored by the Broker, and the Customer consent to the Broker’s disclosure of such Personal Information to the API Products.
- C. No Recommendations. To the extent the Licensee Products or API Licensees express opinions or make recommendations, the Customer understands that such opinions and recommendations are expressed solely by API Licensees and are not the opinions or recommendations of the Broker. The existence of the API Products and the Broker’s consent to any connectivity between any Licensee Products and the Broker’s technology, the Website, or trading platform(s) does not constitute (i) any recommendation by the Broker to invest in any security or utilize any investment strategy; or (ii) any representation, warranty, or other guarantee by the Broker as to the present or future value or suitability of any sale, trade, or other transaction involving any particular security or any other investments. The existence of any and all information, tools and services provided by API Licensees or by the Licensee Products shall not constitute the Broker’s endorsement of API Licensees or the Licensee Products.
- D. Data Provided by the Broker to API. From time to time, and subject to then-in-effect agreements between the Broker and API Licensees, the Broker may, in its own discretion, make market data feeds received from third parties available via the API Products. The Broker does not make any guarantees in regard to such market data feeds. Furthermore, API Licensees or Licensee Products may make available to the Customer market data feeds independent of the Broker. The Customer is aware that from time to time that there may be discrepancy between the market data presented on the Website and information provided by any API Products due to a variety of reasons, including the time to update and transmit such data to a mobile application or website and latency caused by such API Product’s or the Customer’s local environment (such as computer set up, connection speed, etc.). The Broker is not responsible for the accuracy of any market data displayed on any API Products or otherwise made available by API Licensees.

- E. Risks; No Liability. The Customer acknowledges that there may be latency between the time an order (or other Personal Information) is submitted from the API Products and the time such order or Personal Information is received by the Broker. Latency may also affect order modification and order cancellation requests. The time an order or a request is actually received by the Broker (including for execution) will be the official time, including for the purposes of routing the order to the market for execution. In addition, all orders submitted to the Broker are subject to order vetting by the Broker. Orders created and submitted through any API Products are not vetted until they are received by the Broker. It is possible that the Broker may reject an order placed through any API Products. The Broker cannot guarantee that any order will be accepted when such order is routed to the market for execution, and the Broker cannot guarantee that notifications and Personal Information provided to the Customer by the Broker will be successfully delivered to or displayed by any API Products.

Without limiting the generality of any other terms in this Customer Agreement, the Customer agrees that:

- (1) The Broker or its Affiliates shall not be liable for any Losses realized for technical issues involving any API Products or API Licensee technology or product offerings (including system outages or downtime).
- (2) The Broker or its Affiliates shall not be responsible for any investment research provided by any API Licensee or any Licensee Products.
- (3) The Broker or its Affiliates makes no representations, warranties or other guarantees as to the accuracy, timeliness or efficacy of any market data, information, or other functionality made available by any API Licensee or any API Products.

- F. Intellectual Property. The Customer's use of any API Products will not confer to the Customer any title, ownership interest or intellectual property rights that otherwise belongs to the Broker or any of its affiliates. The API Package, including content, is protected under U.S. patent, copyright laws, international treaties or conventions, and other laws and will remain the Broker's exclusive property, as applicable. Names, logos, and all related product and service names, design marks, and slogans displayed by or relating to the Broker or any of its Affiliates or API Licensees in the context of the API Products shall remain the property of the respective owner, and use of such property by the Broker or any API Licensee in marketing or provision of any API Products does not grant ownership of or entitle the Customer to use any such name or mark in any manner.

- G. User's Representations and Warranties. The Customer represents and warrants that:

- (1) By virtue of utilizing any API Products, the Customer consents to and accepts any risk associated with the Broker's sharing of Personal Information with any API Licensee and shall not hold the Broker, its Affiliates, or their respective officers, directors, or employees responsible for any Losses resulting from the sharing of such Personal Information.
- (2) The Customer agrees that the use of any API Products or API Licensee's content, information, technology, or functionality is at the Customer's own risk.
- (3) The Customer agrees that the Broker may revoke any API Licensee or API Products' authorization at any time, for any reason, with or without cause and without prior notice to the Customer.

29. Electronic Signatures; Modifications to the Customer Agreement.

The Customer agrees to transact business with the Broker electronically. By electronically signing an application for a Customer Account, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that such electronic signature is valid evidence of the Customer's consent to be legally bound by this Customer Agreement and such subsequent terms as may govern the use of the Broker's services. The use of an electronic version of any document fully satisfies any requirement that the document be provided to the Customer in writing. The Customer accepts notice by electronic means as reasonable and proper notice, for the purpose of any and all laws, rules and regulations. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Broker may modify this Customer Agreement from time to time and the Customer agrees to consult the Website from time to time for the most up-to-date Customer Agreement. The electronically stored copy of this Customer Agreement is considered to be the true, complete, valid, authentic and enforceable record of the Customer Agreement, admissible in judicial or administrative proceedings to the same extent as if the documents and records were originally generated and maintained in printed form. The Customer agrees to not contest the admissibility or enforceability of the Broker's electronically stored copy of the Customer Agreement.

30. Margin Accounts.

- A. Election. This numbered section applies to the Customer Account to the extent the Customer elects and is approved for a margin account.
- B. Instant Access to Customer Deposits. Instant Access to Customer Deposits is a Broker service that offers limited margin to allow customers to trade using unsettled funds up to the temporary limit amount in their Customer Account. Instant Access to Customer Deposits requires a minimum deposit of $2,000 or 100 percent of the purchase price—whichever is less—in the Customer Account before purchasing a security. The Customer understands if Instant Access to Customer Deposits is utilized the Customer will not place trades that generate a debit balance.
- C. Margin Trading. The Customer understands that margin trading involves interest charges and risks, including the potential to lose more than deposited or the need to deposit additional collateral in a falling market. Before using margin, customers must determine whether this type of trading strategy is right for them given their specific investment objectives, experience, risk tolerance, and financial situation. If the Customer has elected to have a margin account, the Customer represents to have read the Margin Disclosure Statement, Day Trading Risk Disclosure, and FINRA Investor Information. These disclosures contain information on the Broker's lending policies, interest charges, and the risks associated with Instant Access to Customer Deposits and margin accounts.
- D. Hypothecation. Within the limitations imposed by applicable laws, rules and regulations, all securities now or hereafter held by the Broker, or carried by the Broker in any Customer Account (either individually or jointly with others), or deposited to secure them, may from time to time, without any notice, be carried in the Broker's general loans and may be pledged, repledged, hypothecated or re-hypothecated, separately or in common with other securities for the sum due to the Customer thereon or for a greater sum and without retaining in the Customer possession or control for delivery a like amount of similar securities. The IRS requires Broker-Dealers to treat dividend payments on loaned securities positions as payments received in lieu of dividends for 1099 tax reporting purposes. Taxation of substitute dividend payments may be greater than ordinary on qualified dividends. It is understood, however, that the Broker agrees to deliver to the Customer upon demand and upon payment of the full amount due thereon, all securities in such accounts, but without obligation to deliver the same certificates or securities deposited by the Customer originally. Any securities in the Customer's margin account may be borrowed by the Broker, or lent to others.
- E. Interest. Debit balances in all Customer Accounts shall be charged with interest in accordance with the Broker's established custom, as disclosed to the Customer in the Customer Information Brochure pursuant to the provisions of the Securities Exchange Act.

- F. Margin. The Customer agrees to maintain in all accounts with the Broker such positions and margins as required by all applicable statutes, rules, regulations, procedures and custom, or as the Broker deems necessary or advisable. The Customer agrees to promptly satisfy all margin and maintenance calls.
- G. Sales. The Customer agrees that for any order that the Customer will deliver the securities on or before settlement date, if not already in the account. If the Customer should fail to make such delivery in the time required, the Broker is authorized to borrow such securities as necessary to make delivery for the sale, and the Customer agrees to be responsible for any loss the Broker may thereby sustain, or which the Broker may sustain as a result of the inability to borrow such securities.

31. Consent to Electronic Delivery of Documents.

- A. Consent. By agreeing to electronic delivery, the Customer is giving informed consent to electronic delivery of all Customer Account Documents, as defined below, other than those the Customer has specifically requested to be delivered in paper form. "Account Documents" include notices, disclosures, current and future account statements, regulatory communications (such as prospectuses, proxy solicitations, and privacy notices), trade confirmations, tax-related documents, and any other information, documents, data, and records regarding the Customer Account, this Customer Agreement (including amendments to this Customer Agreement), and the services delivered or provided to the Customer by the Broker, the issuers of the securities or other property in which the Customer invests, and any other parties. The Customer agrees that the Customer can access, view, download, save, and print any Account Documents received via electronic delivery for the Customer's records.
- B. Electronic Delivery System. The Customer acknowledges that the Broker's primary methods of communication with the Customer include (A) posting information on the Website, (B) sending email(s) to the Customer's email address of record, and, to the extent required by law, (C) providing the Customer with notice(s) that will direct the Customer to the Website where information can read and printed. Unless otherwise required by law, the Broker reserves the right to post Account Documents on the Website without providing notice to the Customer. Further, the Broker reserves the right to send Account Documents to the Customer's postal or email address of record, or via the Website. The Customer agrees that all Account Documents provided to the Customer in any of the foregoing manner is considered delivered to the Customer personally when sent or posted by the Broker, whether the Customer receives it or not.

All e-mail notifications regarding Account Documents will be sent to the Customer's e-mail address of record. The Customer agrees to maintain the e-mail address provided to the Broker until the Customer provides the Broker with a new one. The Customer understands that e-mail messages may fail to transmit promptly or properly, including being delivered to SPAM folders. The Customer further understands that it is their sole responsibility to ensure that any emails from the Broker or its Affiliates are not marked as SPAM. Regardless of whether or not the Customer receives an e-mail notification, the Customer agrees to check the Website regularly to avoid missing any information, including time-sensitive or otherwise important communication. If the Customer authorizes someone else to access the e-mail account provided to the Broker, the Customer agrees to tell the authorized individual to share the Customer Account Documents with the Customer promptly, and the Customer accepts the risk that they will see sensitive Customer Account information. The Customer understands that if a work e-mail address or computing or communications device is used for Customer Account access the employer or other employees may have access to the Customer Account Documents.

Additionally, the Customer acknowledges that the Internet is not a secure network and agrees that the Customer will not send any confidential information, including Customer Account numbers or passwords, in any unencrypted e-mails. The Customer also understands that communications transmitted over the Internet may be accessed by unauthorized or unintended third parties and agrees to hold the Broker, its Affiliates, and the Broker and its Affiliates' respective officers and employees harmless for any such access regardless of the cause.

The Customer agrees to promptly and carefully review all Customer Account Documents when they are delivered and notify the Broker in writing within five (5) calendar days of delivery if there is objection to the information provided (or other such time specified herein). If the Customer fails to object in writing within such time, the Broker is entitled to treat such information as accurate and conclusive. The Customer will contact the Broker to report any problems with accessing the Customer Account Documents.

- C. Costs. Potential costs associated with electronic delivery of Customer Account Documents may include charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies, and the Customer agrees to bear these costs. The Broker will not charge the Customer additional online access fees for receiving electronic delivery of Customer Account Documents.
- D. Archival. Upon request, the Customer may obtain copies of up to six (6) prior years of account statements, and three (3) prior years of trade confirmations.
- E. Revocation of Consent. Subject to the terms of this Customer Agreement, the Customer may revoke or restrict consent to electronic delivery of Account Documents at any time by notifying the Broker in writing of the intention to do so. The Customer also understands that the Customer has the right to request paper delivery of any Customer Account Document that the law requires the Broker to provide to the Customer in paper form. The Broker will not treat the Customer request for paper copies as a withdrawal of consent to electronic delivery of Customer Account Documents. The Customer understands that if revoking or restricting consent to electronic delivery or requesting paper delivery of Customer Account Documents, the Broker, in its sole discretion, may charge the Customer a reasonable service fee for the delivery of any Customer Account Documents that would otherwise be delivered to the Customer electronically, restrict or close the Customer Account, or terminate the Customer's access to the Broker's services. The Customer understands that neither the revocation or restriction of consent, nor the request for paper delivery, nor the Broker's delivery of paper copies of Customer Account Documents will affect the legal effectiveness or validity of any electronic communication provided while consent was in effect.
- F. Duration of Consent. Customer consent to receive electronic delivery of Customer Account Documents will be effective immediately and will remain in effect unless and until either the Customer or the Broker revokes it. The Customer understands that it may take up to three (3) business days to process a revocation of consent to electronic delivery, and that the Customer may receive electronic notifications until such consent is processed.
- G. Hardware and Software Requirements. The Customer understands that in order to receive electronic deliveries, the Customer must have access to a computer or Mobile Device with Internet access, a valid e-mail address, and the ability to download such applications as the Broker may specify and to which the Customer has access. The Customer also understands that if the Customer wishes to download, print, or save any information, that the Customer must have access to a printer or other device in order to do so.

- H. Consent and Representations. The Customer hereby agrees to have carefully read the above information regarding informed consent to electronic delivery and fully understand the implications thereof. Additionally, the Customer hereby agrees to all conditions outlined above with respect to electronic delivery of any Customer Account Document. The Customer will maintain a valid e-mail address and continue to have access to the Internet. If the Customer's e-mail address changes, the Customer agrees to immediately notify the Broker of the Customer's new e-mail address in writing.

32. Fully-Paid Securities Lending Program.

By entering into this Agreement, Customer understands and acknowledges that Customer is also agreeing to enroll into the Clearing Broker's Fully-Paid Securities Lending Program (the "Fully-Paid Securities Lending Program"). In connection with entering into the Fully-Paid Securities Lending Program, Customer will be required to: (1) review and agree to the Clearing Broker's Master Securities Lending Agreement, and (2) read and understand the separate document entitled 'Important Disclosures Regarding Risks and Characteristics of Participating in Apex Clearing Corporation's Fully-Paid Securities Lending Program,' which describes the risks and characteristics of the program. Each of these documents will be provided to Customer.

For the avoidance of doubt, Customer explicitly acknowledges and understands that Customer is not required to participate in the Fully-Paid Securities Lending Program and may, at Customer's election, opt-out of the Fully-Paid Securities Lending Program at any time by contacting support@altruist.com.

33. Miscellaneous Provisions.

The following provisions shall also govern this Customer Agreement:

- A. Interpretation. The heading of each provision hereof is for descriptive purposes only and shall not be (1) deemed to modify or qualify any of the rights or obligations set forth herein or (2) used to construe or interpret any of the provisions hereunder. When a reference is made in this Customer Agreement to a Section, such reference shall be to a Section of this Customer Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Customer Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation." The word "or," when used in this Customer Agreement, has the inclusive meaning represented by the phrase "and/or." Unless the context of this Customer Agreement otherwise requires: (i) words using the singular or plural number also include the plural or singular number, respectively; and (ii) the terms "hereof," "herein," "hereunder" and derivative or similar words refer to this entire Customer Agreement. References to any law shall be deemed to refer to such law as amended from time to time and to any rules or regulations promulgated thereunder.
- B. Binding Effect; Assignment. This Customer Agreement shall bind the Customer's heirs, assigns, executors, successors, conservators and administrators. The Customer may not assign this Customer Agreement or any rights or obligations under this Customer Agreement without first obtaining the Broker's prior written consent. The Broker may assign, sell, or transfer the Customer Account and this Customer Agreement, or any portion thereof, at any time, without the Customer's prior consent.
- C. Severability. If any provisions or conditions of this Customer Agreement are or become inconsistent with any present or future law, rule, or regulation of any applicable government, regulatory or self-regulatory agency or body, or are deemed invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provisions shall be deemed rescinded or modified, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to make this Customer Agreement in compliance with such law, rule or regulation, or to be valid and enforceable, but in all other respects, this Customer Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

- D. Website Postings. The Customer agrees and understands that the Broker may post other specific agreements, disclosures, policies, procedures, terms, and conditions that apply to the Customer's use of the Website, or the Customer Account on the Website ("Website Postings"). The Customer understands the continuing obligation of the Customer to understand the terms of the Website Postings, and agrees to be bound by the Web Postings as are in effect at the time of the Customer's use.
- E. Entirety of the Customer Agreement. This Customer Agreement, any attachments hereto, other agreements and policies referred to in this Customer Agreement (including the Website Postings), and the terms and conditions contained in Customer Account statements and confirmations, contain the entire agreement between the Broker and the Customer and supersede all prior or contemporaneous communications and proposals, whether electronic, oral, or written, between the Broker and the Customer, provided, however, that any and all other agreements between the Broker and the Customer, not inconsistent with this Customer Agreement, will remain in full force and effect.
- F. Amendment. The Broker may at any time amend this Customer Agreement without prior notice to the Customer. The current version of the Customer Agreement will be posted on the Website and the Customer's continued Customer Account activity after such amendment constitutes agreement to be bound by all then-in-effect amendments to the Customer Agreement, regardless of whether the Customer has actually reviewed them. Continued use of the Website or any other of the Broker's services after such posting will constitute the Customer's acknowledgment and acceptance of such amendment. The Customer agrees to regularly consult the Website for up-to-date information about the Broker services and any modifications to this Customer Agreement. The Broker is not bound by any verbal statements that seek to amend the Customer Agreement.
- G. Termination. The Broker may terminate this Customer Agreement, or close, deactivate, or block access to the Customer Account at any time in its sole discretion. The Customer will remain liable to the Broker for all obligations incurred in the Customer Account, pursuant to this Customer Agreement, or otherwise, whether arising before or after termination. The Customer may terminate this Customer Agreement after paying any obligations owed upon written notice. This Customer Agreement survives termination of the Customer Account.
- H. No Waiver; Cumulative Nature of Rights and Remedies. The Customer understands that the Broker's failure to insist at any time upon strict compliance with any term contained in this Customer Agreement, or any delay or failure on the Broker's part to exercise any power or right given to the Broker in this Customer Agreement, or a continued course of such conduct on the Broker's part, shall at no time operate as a waiver of such power or right, nor shall any single or partial exercise preclude any other further exercise. All rights and remedies given to the Broker in this Customer Agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies to which the Broker is entitled.
- I. International Customers. The products and services described on the Website are offered only in jurisdictions where they may be legally offered. The Website shall not be considered a solicitation for or offering of any investment product or service to any person in any jurisdiction where such solicitation or offering would be illegal. The Customer understands that the Broker is based in the United States and that the Broker accepts only U.S. currency in the Broker's customer accounts.

- J. Governing Law. This Customer Agreement and all transactions made in the Customer Account shall be governed by the laws of the State of California (regardless of the choice of law rules thereof), except to the extent governed by the federal securities laws, FINRA Rules, and the regulations, customs and usage of the exchanges or market (and its clearing house) on which transactions are executed.

ACCEPTED AND AGREED: The Customer acknowledges to have read the preceding terms and conditions of this Customer Agreement, to understand them and that to hereby manifest the Customer's assent to, and agreement to comply with, those terms and conditions by accepting this Customer Agreement. THE CUSTOMER ALSO UNDERSTANDS THAT BY ACCEPTING THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT THE CUSTOMER HAS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT CONTAINS A PREDISPUTE ARBITRATION CLAUSE IN SECTION 27 HEREIN. THE CUSTOMER ALSO AGREES (1) THAT ANY MARGIN ACCOUNT SECURITIES MAY BE BORROWED BY THE BROKER OR LOANED TO OTHERS; (2) THE CUSTOMER HAS RECEIVED A COPY OF THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT AND (3) THE CUSTOMER HAS REVIEWED A COPY OF THE MARGIN DISCLOSURE STATEMENT.
